A petition calling for the impeachment of President Donald Trump has garne more than 90,000 signatures.

At the time of writing, the petition,
The System, has been signed by 90, signatures shy of 100,000.

The petition accuses Trump of "greed, corruption, and a lack of accountability in leadership," "exploitation of the American people," and claims Trump has "repeatedly violated" the U.S. Constitution and mismanaged the economy.

"This petition calls on all Americans to come together, to make our voices heard, and to demand the impeachment of Donald Trump," it says.

Carlos Álvarez-Aranyos, founder of American Opposition, which partnered with healthiest pathway to ending this nightmare, as it removes the fascist regime while reasserting the power of our Constitution. Our system was built to deal with threats like Donald Trump. Our current failure is human. We need our representatives to wake up and use the tools the Founders gave them to save our republic before it's too late."

In April, Representative Shri Thanedar introduced seven articles of impeachment against Trump for several reasons, including Trump's use of the Department of Government Efficiency and Trump's implementation of "damaging tariffs" on the U.S.'s trading partners.

Earlier this month, Trump expressed concerns that he could be impeached if the GOP performs badly in the upcoming midterm elections in November. "But you mean, they'll find a reason to impeach me," Trump said during a speech to House Republicans, adding: "I'll get impeached."

What Happens Next

It is unlikely that Trump will be impeached in the next few months, given the GOP's majorities in Congress. Lucas said: "I don't think the petition is going to succeed in having Donald Trump impeached."
